

Thorbahn Salutes the Troops

It is with humbled enthusiasm we would like to share our 2010 Salute the Troops Project. This year, Thorbahn is giving back in sending care packages to the brave men and women serving our country and will be without their family and comforts of home during the holiday season.

Thorbahn will be sponsoring employee's friends and family serving in Iraq and Afghanistan— one troop is on their second tour in 3 years. Many of these young men and women have young children and family members who will be missing them during the holidays. As it is a busy and expensive time for everyone this month, we were pleasantly surprised by the outpouring of food, DVD's, first-aid materials and thank you letter's donated to help make this time a little more comfortable for the soldiers.

We are all are very fortunate to have our health, family and jobs and excited to share our respect and gratitude towards the members of our armed forces.

Thorbahn wishes everyone a happy and healthy Holiday Season!
